Brief introduction of the Webinar:

1. As mainland enterprises accelerate their international expansion, how can Hong Kong leverage its financial and professional services strengths to serve as a premier "Go Global" springboard? In this session, we will explore the latest global capital market trends and Hong Kong IPO market updates, highlighting the city's role as an international financial centre in supporting enterprise global growth. We will also discuss key financial and accounting considerations relevant to companies as they navigate capital markets and cross-border operations.
